

Graduate Gerontology Course Calendar

Effective Fall, 2011

Course Number	Summer	Fall	Spring
GRN 501 Interdisciplinary Approaches to Gerontology	Yes, online	Yes, online	Yes, live
GRN 502 Understanding & Combating Ageism	No	Yes, live (odd)	No
GRN 505 Public Policy & Aging	Yes, online	No	No
GRN 506 Biology of Aging	No	Yes, online	No
GRN 507 Psychosocial Aspects of Aging		Yes, live	No
GRN 508 Nutrition & Aging	No	No	Yes, online (even)
GRN 509 Sexuality & Aging	No	No	Yes, online (odd)
GRN 510 Geriatric Pharmacology	No	Yes, online (odd)	No
GRN 512 Ethics & Aging	Yes, online (even)	No	No
GRN 516 Dementia & Older Adults	No	No	Yes, online (even)
GRN 517 Psychology of Aging	No	Yes (live, even; online, odd)	Yes
GRN 522 Spirituality & Aging	Yes, online (odd)	No	No
GRN 527 Aging in a Diverse Society	No	No	Yes (live, odd; online, even)
GRN 552 Internship in Gerontology	Instructor Permission	Instructor Permission	Instructor Permission
GRN 560 Applications in Gerontology	Instructor Permission	Instructor Permission	Instructor Permission
GRN 566 (format varies by semester)	Yes	Yes	Yes
Stats & Design (Gero) or equivalent	Yes, online	No	Yes, live
GRN 570: Proposal Writing in Gerontology	Instructor Permission	Instructor Permission	Instructor Permission
GRN 580: Master's Capstone in Gerontology	Instructor Permission	Instructor Permission	Instructor Permission
GRN 590: Master's Thesis in Gerontology	Instructor Permission	Instructor Permission	Instructor Permission

Note:

*GRN 501 – Interdisciplinary Approaches to Gerontology is the pre-requisite/co-requisite for all Gerontology courses and must be included as a first semester course. Students who have completed undergraduate Gerontology coursework can have their coursework evaluated for possible exemption from GRN 501.

**GRN 506- Biology of Aging is the pre-requisite/co-requisite for GRN 508, 509, 510, and 516.