Camp Director

Kevin Curley

McDaniel College

Men's Basketball Coach

Coach Curley took over the Green Terror sidelines in 2007. In just his first season as head coach, Curley guided the Green Terror to 15 wins, and the first Centennial Conference play-off appearance in 13 years. The 15 wins were the most the program has had in 25 years and this year's winning season was the first in 23 years.

Before taking over the McDaniel program, Coach Curley spent nine years as an assistant coach at Colgate University, including serving as the top assistant from 2002-2007, where he helped head coach Emmett Davis become the winningest coach in Colgate history.

As a recruiter at Colgate, he helped bring in four All-Patriot League performers, five players named to the all-rookie team and four 1,000 point scorers.

Prior to that, Coach Curley served four seasons as the assistant coach at Bethany College, WV. The last class that he assisted in the recruitment of went on to win their conference twice and made one trip to the NCAA tournament.

Coach Curley has over fourteen years of experience working with and running quality basketball camps and clinics.

The Camp

It is our goal to make this camp a fun and enjoyable experience for all participants. In addition, the camp is designed to teach the basic fundamentals of basketball that may be applied individually and in a team setting. Teamwork will be stressed.

McDaniel College is located in Westminster, MD, at the crossroads of Route 140 west and Route 31 south. The beautiful hilltop campus is also home to the Baltimore Ravens summer training camp. Gill Gymnasium, where the camp will be held, has four full-length basketball courts and 18 individual baskets for individual instruction.
