

Instructions for the International Student Declaration of Finances Form

All F-1 international applicants who are applying for admission to Graduate and Professional Studies at McDaniel College must certify sufficient funds for university expenses including tuition and living expenses. To certify finances, the applicant must submit the Declaration of Finances Form with requested documentation. If this form is not completed and received, you will not receive the Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 for F-1 visa status).

ESTIMATED EXPENSES TO BE CERTIFIED FOR 1 YEAR

TUITION & FEES	$7,000
Living Expenses--12 Months	$10,000

TYPES OF CERTIFICATION

Personal Savings

Personal savings may be used for all or part of your financial support. Please indicate the name of your bank in the space provided. An official of the bank must attach a current bank balance statement to verify the cash amount you have indicated. If you are relying solely on personal savings, you must show funding for the entire duration of your studies.

Parents and/or Sponsor

If your parents or another sponsor are willing to sponsor all or part of your studies, they must indicate the amount of funds on the Certificate of Finances Form. Your sponsors must have an official of their bank attach a current bank statement to verify the cash amount indicated. This amount must cover a minimum of one year of your estimated program expenses. Students receiving funds from parent/sponsor must also submit a completed Affidavit of Support Document.

Home Government or an International Organization

If you will be sponsored by your home government or an international organization/foundation, indicate the name of the agency and include a letter, signed by an authorized representative detailing the terms of your award. The letter of award should answer the following questions:

1. Will the sponsoring agency pay your tuition and fee expenses?
2. Will the agency provide you with living expenses? If yes, how much?
3. For how long is the sponsorship valid: one year, two years, or renewable until the degree is awarded?
