New Student Orientation Schedule

Keys to... Success At McDaniel
1:30pm-2:45pm: First Year and Transfer Students Gather in Red Square at the Memorial Bell
All New Students will meet their Peer Mentor and fellow classmates for introductions and more information about Orientation. At the conclusion of this meeting all new students will line-up for the Introduction Convocation outside of the Gill Center. Please look for the NAME of your class, Peer Mentor, or Transfer Team on a sign.

2:45pm: All NEW Students Line-Up for Introduction Convocation, Gill Center Gym
Assemble outside the Gill Center with your FYS/Transfer Team and Peer Mentor, or with your Step Ahead Peer Mentor. Please be prompt, and watch for staff who will be assisting you with seating.

3:00pm-4:00pm: The Introduction Convocation, Gill Center
All new students, families, selected Faculty and Staff are invited to attend this traditional ceremony, which represents the formal beginning of the academic year. Welcome to McDaniel College Class of 2020!

4:30pm: Letting Go: A Time to Separate
Following the Introduction Convocation we ask families and guests to say their goodbyes, so that the Class of 2020 can begin their New Student Orientation program.

5:00pm-6:30pm: Dinner with your Peer Mentor, Englar Dining Hall, Lower Level of the Decker College Center
Please join your Peer Mentor and FYS classmates for your first dinner on campus. Peer Mentors will inform students about a meeting location for dinner. Commuter Students should attend as well.

6:45pm-8:00pm: Resident Student Meetings with your Resident Assistant, in your Residence Hall
Students living on campus report back to your floors to gather, and officially meet your RA and other students living in your new community. Residents should gather in the hallway at their RA’s door to begin the program.

6:45pm-8:00pm: Commuter Student Meetings with CSA, 1st Floor Merritt Hall
Commuter students will gather in Merritt Hall outside the Commuter Student Lounge to meet other commuter students, and upperclass students in your new community. A tour of campus will be provided.

8:15pm: Out of the Darkness, into the Light, Alumni Hall Theater and the Arch
New students take a symbolic walk through the McDaniel College Arch and are officially welcomed as students into the McDaniel College Community. At the conclusion of the program each new student will be asked to “ring-in” the academic year at the commemorative Old Main Bell in Red Square, Memorial Plaza.

Immediately Following the Candlewalk Ceremony and Bell-Ringing Join the McDaniel College Community for an Ice Cream Social in Englar Dining Hall to celebrate!

Preparing for a Successful Semester
Success begins with a plan…we provide resources for our students about the importance in preparing for the upcoming semester. Our ultimate goal of this workshop is to empower and engage the student in the decision-making process so that they feel more personal responsibility and motivation for their decisions and successes. Key points covered are the Guide to Your Syllabi, Important Due Dates, forming the Semester Goal Plan, and understanding Blackboard Assignment Submission.

9:30am to 10:15am  Session #1  Hill Hall, Room #108
10:30am to 11:15am  Session #2  Hill Hall, Room #108

What’s Your Learning Style?
Do you know how you prefer to learn? Most of us have different learning preferences that affect how we learn and the strategies we use to study. In this workshop, you will reflect on your learning habits to understand your main learning style while discovering ways to overcome weaknesses.

9:30am to 10:15am  Session #1  Decker College Center, Back Half Forum
