

FINANCIAL AID OFFICE

2020-2021 Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy Academic Plan Form

Based on your Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) appeal, the Financial Aid department will permit you to receive financial aid on a probationary basis. Your financial aid probation is valid for fall 2020 and spring 2021 semesters. At the end of each semester, we will confirm the fulfillment of the conditions listed below. If you will fail to meet the outlined requirements, your eligibility for aid will be terminated.

This plan is unofficial until you read it, sign the certification statement below and return it to our office.

To fulfill your academic plan, you must:

- 1. At the end of the fall 2020 semester, achieve at least a semester grade point average required for students of your grade level to be in good standing (refer to a chart below).

Table with 2 columns: Attempted Credits (includes both transferred credits and McDaniel earned credits) and Cumulative GPA. Rows show GPA requirements for credit ranges from 0-31.5 to 96 and higher.

- 2. Keep your cumulative pace (a ratio between completed and attempted credits) at least 67%.
3. You must be meeting the satisfactory academic standards at the end of the spring 2021 semester.(refer to the undergraduate SAP Policy posted at https://www.mcdaniel.edu/media/2201 .
4. If you will fail to meet the outlined requirements, your eligibility for aid will be terminated.

This agreement represents a contract between you and the Financial Aid Office. Therefore, you must read, sign and return this agreement to the office before you can receive financial aid.

Certification statement form with fields for Student Name, Student ID, Student's Signature, and Date.
