Student Name (Last Name, First Name)

Financial aid administrators have the authority to increase the Cost of Attendance (also known as student budget) to allow for unusual expenses the student will incur during the academic year.

Please note: Budget increases typically only allow the student or parent to borrow more loans.

From the following, check all that apply:

Actual tuition charges above the amount allotted in the financial and budget/cost of attendance:

Semester _____ Charges _____

Health Insurance purchased through McDaniel College:

Cost _____

Daycare expenses for dependents: Student budgets can be increased for daycare expenses incurred during the academic year. Attach copy of your daycare contract or a letter from your daycare provider indicating the cost for the academic year.

Name of Child	Age	Monthly daycare expenses
_____	_____	_____

Books/Supplies: A total of $1,200 for Undergraduate Students and $600 for Graduate Students is budgeted for books and supplies during the academic year for students enrolled full time in both the fall and spring semesters. Student budgets can be increased for required books and supplies over this amount. Submit receipts for semester charges or a letter from a professor regarding required supplies.

Other expenses: Student budgets can also be increased if there are other unusual education related expenses the student will incur during the academic year. Attach documentation of these expenses.
