

Timeline of the Middle States Self-Study

	2020
Co-chairs, Director of IR, and President attended MSCHE Self-Study Institute	September-November
Co-chairs met with and surveyed faculty and staff for comment on the institutional priorities	December
	2021
Recruited faculty and staff to serve on steering committee and working groups	January
Completed first draft of self-study design	January
Co-chairs and president met with MSCHE liaison via videoconference	January 25
Finalized institutional priorities after Board of Trustees approval	February
Steering Committee met to provide revision advice for the self-study design	March
Finalized and submitted self-study design	March
Self-study preparation visit with MSCHE liaison	April 20
Working groups began evidence gathering at direction of the steering committee	Summer 2021
Met with working groups and steering committee to kick-off the self-study	September 1
Working groups began their work	September 1
Working groups submitted chapter outlines and list of evidence they intended to use	October 15
Steering Committee provided feedback on chapter outlines	November 1
	2022
Working groups submitted first draft of chapters	May 1
Steering Committee provided feedback on chapter drafts	July 1
Working groups submitted revised chapters	October 1
MSCHE evaluation team chair visited campus	October 21
Working groups, Steering Committee, Cabinet revised chapters	October - December 2023
Co-chairs with Steering Committee and Cabinet made revisions	January – February
Draft released for comment. Co-chairs held four town hall meetings and collected online feedback about the self-study from faculty, staff, and students	February 20 to March 3
Co-chairs made final revisions to chapters and finalized evidence	February 20 – March 6
Final review and design	March 6-10
Submitted self-study to MSCHE	March 10
MSCHE evaluation team visit	April 23-26