Our recipients, cost remains a difficult stretch for many of our students; I know it was for me, reached $152,000, an accomplishment to be applauded.

Because of your generosity, The McDaniel College Women’s Leadership endowment has now been changed on the Hill. Any amount makes a difference. Every amount widens the circle. Giving back moves the world forward, a spirit of lifelong community among those whose lives have been changed on the Hill. Any amount makes a difference.

You will read more about these four impressive young women in this message from the chair.
